LOCAL NEWS.

J. C. Goodwin left this morning for Tempe.

Chas. F. Pascoe, of Safford, spent Tuesday here.

Con Crowley was in yesterday from his mines on Pinto creek.

C. H. Cutting, manager of the Troy mines, has gone to El Paso on business.

Lex Lord arrived on Monday's train from Clifton, on a visit to his relatives here.

Charles Holzman has been elected first lieutenant of company G. A. N. G., at Nogales.

Mrs. Katherine McLane was in town on Monday to prove up on her homestead in Miami valley.

The heat is gradually relaxing its grip and delightful weather may be expected from this on.

Attorney Jesse Hardesty left on Monday for Chicago, for an indefinite stay in the Windy City.

Wm. F. Ryan, an attorney from Tucson, is here on legal business and will remain several days.

F. W. Westmeyer left yesterday to join his wife in Los Angeles. He expects to be absent ninety days.

L. W. Leighton and daughter, Mrs. Gleason, went to the Gila valley this morning. They will return tomorrow.

No rain has fallen here during the past week. The total precipitation for the past month was about five inches.

The ladies of St. John's Guild will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. J. Keegan, Friday afternoon, August 23, 1901, at 2:30.

A telegram was received here yesterday from Nacozari, announcing the death of A. D. Walsh, who formerly ran the Kan Kan Kitchen here.

The Globe band, under the able leadership of Prof. Vincent, shows marked improvement. Their Saturday evening concerts are very popular.

A letter from Harry Nash locates him at Macababe, Philippine Islands, where he is in charge of a school. He likes the country and is well satisfied with his position.

Jas. F. Gerald, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Geraldine, went to La Junta, Colo., last week, to look after the real estate which he recently acquired in that city.

S. F. Sullenberger, cashier of the Stockmen's National Bank of Canyon, Texas, was here during the past week, visiting his friend, J. N. Porter, president of the Bank of Globe.

Mr. Foster, representing the old and reliable firm of Solomon & Wickerham, of Safford, was in town yesterday, interviewing customers. The house enjoys a large trade here.

Forty new desks for the primary schools are expected to arrive within a few days, which with eighty desks on hand, will provide for sixty pupils in each of the primary schools.

Dennis Murphy, of the Globe meat market, has received two carloads of corned hogs from Kansas, and is prepared to supply fine pork to his customers and the trade in general.

The Tucson Citizen, of August 20, publishes a telegram from Salem, Illinois, announcing the marriage of Wm. H. Beard of Florence, Ariz., to Miss Ella Hite, of New Baden, Ill.

E. F. Kellner returned last Saturday from Los Angeles, where he spent three weeks very pleasantly. Mr. Kellner visited San Carlos this week to look after his business at the post.

Wm. H. Butler writes from San Diego that there is no change for the worse in his father's condition, which encourages hope of his improvement. Will may return to Globe within a week.

Manager of the Pinal Copper Co. Geo. P. Andrews and his family moved out the mines yesterday, where they are comfortably quartered in a cottage built by the company several months ago.

O. H. Bru, who was assistant agent of the G. V. G. & N., at Safford, and recently exchanged places with Will Roundy, is glad to be in Globe again. The railroad company has a very capable employe in Mr. Bru.

Geo. T. Peter was branded into the globe herd of Elks last Friday night. The gentleman from Tonto rode the goat with becoming grace and by unanimous consent was declared worthy to wear the antlers.

The Union Livestock Association of Gila county, has been formed and will be incorporated. The principal business of the association will be to engage in the butchering of livestock and sale of the meat in Globe.

G. S. VanWagenen has moved into the larger quarters recently occupied by the Chicago Store, which he has had handsomely painted and papered. His customers will find it a pleasant retreat where they will be well served.

Andre Maurel makes the announcement to the thrifty housewives of Globe that he is prepared to supply them with peaches of several varieties suitable for preserving, at very reasonable prices. Orders for any quantity promptly filled.

Undersheriff Hinson Thomas who has been confined to his home by sickness for the past ten days, is again able to attend to his duties at the sheriff's office. He is much improved and hopes that he is now on the road to permanent recovery.

D. A. Abrams, who was in from Black Warrior on Monday, stated that work on the acid plant would be begun as soon as the building material was on the ground. Eight cars of lumber to be used in its construction are en route from the coast.

McNeill's Racket Store desire to express appreciation of the very generous patronage received during the five years since the business was established in Globe, and to assure the public that they will endeavor to merit a continuance of their favor.

Mrs. A. Kinney returned last Tuesday night from San Francisco, where she spent two weeks very pleasantly and was refreshed by the change of scene and climate. San Francisco was so cold that she found winter clothing and furs very comfortable.

Morris Simon, who represents Albert Mathias, of El Paso, wholesale dealer in dry goods, hats, boots and shoes and furnishings goods, was a visitor here this week. We carry the advertisement of this house, which is one of the biggest concerns in El Paso.

Morris Belknap returned last Monday from the land of the manana, and says that he has had all he wants of Mexico. Morris was so anxious to get back to Globe that he footed a part of the distance between Nogales and Tucson rather than wait for the washouts to be repaired.

Lodges of the order of Eagles have been instituted at Bisbee and Tucson. Later the organizer is expected to come here. It would seem as though there are as many secret orders represented in Globe now as the town can well support. Fewer and stronger lodges would be better.

There was a fire scare Tuesday afternoon, caused by the ignition of gasoline from a gasoline stove on Col. L. F. Eggers' premises. A few buckets of water put out the flame. People who have gasoline stoves cannot be too careful, but it is safer still not to use them. They are always dangerous.

G. W. P. Hunt, of the Old Dominion Commercial Co., who left for the east on business the fore part of last week, was detained at New Orleans by the coast storm so severe in that vicinity. After making his purchases in St. Louis and Chicago, Mr. Hunt will visit the Pan-American exposition.

The Cocoonino Sun notes that eight six-horse teams from Tonto basin were in Flagstaff last week after supplies which suggests the thought that it would pay the Globe merchants to look closer after the trade of that section, the cream of which is divided between Flagstaff and Salt river valley.

"Dad" Morgan, who played catcher and first base for the Morenci baseball club, is a late arrival, and will probably remain here. Although 45 years old Dad is one of the best ball tossers in southern Arizona, and that he has lasted so long on the diamond is due to his abstemious habits. He has never drank liquor nor used tobacco.

The postoffice was moved into new quarters in the McNelly building, on Sunday, without causing any interruption of business. The change is altogether desirable, the arrangement of the boxes being much better and the lobby for the use of the public larger than in the former postoffice room. A skylight is being put in, which will make the room much lighter.

The finest baths in town at Towle's barber shop.

From Road Overseer John Cramer, who was in town Tuesday, we learned that he is about to begin work with a strong force on a new piece of road on the other side of Pioneer, to avoid the Middleton grade and long sandwash leading down to Dripping Springs; also the distance to Troy will be shortened four or five miles. When this work is completed Globe will have a fairly good wagon road to Troy, which should bring us more business from that growing camp.

George Carrum, the absconding town marshal of Winslow, who was located and arrested on Salt river, this county, by Bill McClintock, a cowboy deputized to get him, is now behind the bars in the Holbrook jail. Carrum embezzled $330 belonging to the Winslow town government. On August 12 Carrum waived examination before Judge Mahoney on the charge of embezzlement and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $1,000. In default of bail Carrum was placed in jail.

Homestead Entry No. 3719, Department of the Interior, Land Office at Tucson, Arizona.

Aug. 17, 1901.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim and that said proof will be made before the clerk of the district court at Globe, Arizona, on Wednesday, October 2, 1901, viz: Edward E. Horrell, of Globe, Arizona, for the N. E. 1/4, Sec. 21, T. 1 N., R. 15 E., G. & S. R. & M.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: Mortimer J. McLane, James F. Gerald, Thomas A. Pascoe and Allen C. McLane, all of Globe, Arizona.

MILTON R. MOORE, Recorder.

Filed for publication Aug. 22, 1901.

In the Probate Court of the county of Gila, Territory of Arizona.

In the matter of the estate of T. E. Rinehart, deceased—Order to show cause why an optional bond should not be given:

Upon reading and filing the petition of William Rolling, administrator of the estate of T. E. Rinehart, deceased, praying that he be authorized, empowered and directed to execute an optional bond on certain mining claims belonging to said estate which are described as follows: To-wit: One-half interest in the Great Eastern, the notice of location thereof being recorded in the office of the county recorder of Gila county, territory of Arizona, at page 17, book 6, record of mines; all of the above mining claim, the notice of location thereof being recorded in the office of the county recorder of Gila county, territory of Arizona, at page 34, book 7, record of mines; the Ontario mining claim, the notice of location thereof being recorded in the office of the county recorder of Gila county, Arizona, territory, at page 246, book 8, record of mines; the Limestone mining claim, the notice of location thereof being recorded in the office of the county recorder of Gila county at page 30, book 7, record of mines; and the Wedge mining claim, the notice of location thereof not being recorded in the office of the county recorder, a more accurate description cannot be given except it is a fractional claim in and belonging to the foregoing group of mining claims.

It is ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before the above entitled court on Friday, August 23, 1901, at the hour of 10 o'clock, a. m., at the courtroom of said court, to show cause if any they can, why said petition should not be granted, and the clerk is instructed to cause notice to be published for the hearing of the same according to law.
